Category: Teaching materials Star Trek (season 1) The first season of the American science fiction television series Star Trek originally aired in the United States on the NBC television network between September 8,

1966 and March 11, 1967.

Created by Gene Roddenberry, the series was produced by Desilu Productions and originally aired on the Columbia Broadcasting System. Set in the 24th century, the series follows the adventures of the Starfleet crew of the space exploration vessel, which was formerly named but later retitled. The season contains 10 episodes, all of which were written by Gene L. Coon and directed by Marc Daniels. The first season aired on

Saturdays at 8:00 pm. The show was an instant success, and would become the longest-running science fiction television series of all time. Cast and crew Star Trek creator Gene Roddenberry initially wanted the series to be a comedy series. However, the show was intended to be a more serious television series than The Twilight Zone, which aired on CBS. At the time, NBC was the lowest-rated network in the United States, and the programmers at the network wanted to change their fortunes by creating an innovative drama. "I said I wanted a show to bring prestige to NBC and I wanted a show that people could understand, a show with human faces and brains and sweat, a story with something in it for everybody, a program we could be f678ea9f9e
